Intro:

Dm – Bb – C

Verse 1:

Dm Bb C
What if You'd let me have all I desired
Dm Bb C
What if I'd acted on every whim
Dm Bb C
What if I'd given into every craving
Dm Bb C
What if I'd satisfied every sin
Dm Bb C
What if I'd never met You, oh so beautiful
Dm Bb C
And by working I cheapened Your grace
Dm Bb C
The plenty I had was never as plentiful
Dm Bb C
As the abundance of this place

Chorus:

Bb F C
But along You came and You saved me from myself
Bb F C
But along You came and You saved me from myself

Verse 2:

Dm Bb C
What if You'd left me to trust in my intellect
Dm Bb C
All my patterns of philosophy
Dm Bb C
What wonderful things would my mind force me to neglect
Dm Bb C
You're the start and the end and everything in between
